In Re: The Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico as representative of The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al. Debtors
PROMESA Title III
No. 17 BK 3283-LTS

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter to respectfully oppose to the disallow of my claim #151. The reason I haven't been able to be as diligent on my responses by mail obeys to not having immediate access to your mail letters. Since 2017, after Hurricane Maria devastated Puerto Rico, I have been living in the mainland. I still have this mailbox active and received correspondence through it. But I completely depend on my elderly parents who live in Camuy, Puerto Rico (two hours away) to check on it whenever they have a chance and resend it to my current mainland mailbox. That, of course, makes your communications to get late to me and for me to be late for "deadlines" like the ones you impose for the "disallow" objection.

I respectfully oppose to the disallow of my claim and ask that you still reconsider my long time claim #151 for the total of $10,558.00 that the Department of Treasury of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico owes to The Line Contractors, Corp. This claim is related to Tax Refund for Tax period 2015 ($10,528.00) and 2016 ($30.00). Please, accept the proof of evidence related I am providing here. If you need anything else don't hesitate to contact me directly and immediately by phone, email or regular mail to my most current and accessible mailbox.

Here my actual and most current contact information: Phone: 787-530-6436; Email: luckmas@hotmail.com, Mailbox: Po Box 228572 Miami, FL 33222.

Sincerely,

Lucas G. Martinez
